1. Get Creative!
Design your very own Superhero. Go to the Prep Blog and click on the Marvel link.

2. Write Away!
Write a letter or a poem to your Grandparent or Special Friend. Don’t forget to tell them why they are your superhero. Go to the prep blog to get some helpful hints from Australia Post.

3. Story time!
Visit the Prep blog to listen to a story called Wilfrid Gordon McDonald Partridge. Write a comment to tell us a memory you share with your grandparents or special friends.

4. Make a sketch
Using grey lead pencil make a sketch of your grandparent or special friend as a superhero. Don’t forget to add detail. Watch a video on the blog to get some ideas for your sketching.

5. Remember your Memory!
Draw an illustration of your favourite memory you have with your Grandparent or Special Friend. Make sure you then write about your memory. Take it home to keep it in a special place to look back on when you grow up.

6. Now and Then! Past and Present!
Go to the Prep Blog to watch a video. Learn what it might have been like when your Grandparent's went to school. What questions could you ask your grandparent/s?

7. Real Life Kid Heroes
Visit the blog to watch two videos about kids who have been heroes. How could you make a difference in our school or in the world? Write down what you would like to do to help the world.

8. Create your own Comic!
Visit the Prep Blog to make your own comic.
